

Andrew Penner The Rabbit Room

Andrew Penner, executive chef and co-owner of The Rabbit Room, was raised in upstate New York. He began working in the restaurant industry as a bus boy at the age of 13. He continued to work his way through every type of front end and kitchen position in many types of restaurants. Although he did not set out to be a chef, he fell in love with the kitchen and the classic techniques of cooking great food.

In 2006 he opened The Rabbit Room with his wife Alison DeMarco. The Lower Mill of Honeoye Falls was built in 1827 as a grist mill. In this art inspired and historic setting, Penner brings classic American cuisine a new modern twist. He credits local farmers, a dedicated staff and a unique business plan for the restaurant's success. Penner's most recent focus is on creating a new line of culinary sauces that will be available soon. Please visit www.thelowermill.com.
